As the government has set policies to promote the administration of State affairs; with the governance to prevent and suppress corruption and misconduct in the government sectors which was announced to the National Legislative Assembly on September 12, 2014. Together with the Civil Service Code of Conduct B.E. 2552, the National Strategic plan on the prevention and suppression of corruption, Phase 3 (2017 – 2021). In the meeting of the NACC No. 1/2020, dated 2 January 2020, there was a resolution to extend the time frame until September 30, 2022, the announcement from the Office of the Basic Education Commission about regulations on Civil Service Ethics. The Office of the Basic Education Commission, B.E. 2552, states the integrity and transparency assessment manual for the government sectors from the Office of the National Anti-Corruption Commission (NACC).

Lampang Kanlayanee School is a governance organization that builds trust and confidence in society. As an administrator of an educational institute, I would like to declare my intention that all personnel are required to work with integrity, transparency, accountability, and anti-corruption practices. As well as conducting missions with honesty, integrity, and morality that are free from corruption under the following policies:

1. Transparency means disclosure of operational information, including purchasing and procuring. It also provides opportunities for the public or stakeholders to take part in the audit, and has a clear management system for complaint handling.

2. The readiness for liability is the determination to perform official duties at full efficiency under the law, to the correct methodology, to be responsible for decision-making and administration, and to be ready to examine people in order to gain confidence in Lampang Kalyanee School.

3. Free from corruption involves performing duties with honesty and not using a position to facilitate benefits to oneself or accept bribes.

4. Culture and morality in the organization refer to a zero-tolerance policy toward any type of corruption and to taking action in order to stop corruption in the department.

5. The moral aspects of work in the department are setting clear standards to perform, having fairness in work, directing justice, transparency in personnel management, in budget management, and assignments.

I (Mr. Wiroj Lukman) hereby announce the following statements of acknowledgment and general practices.

Announced on 17th May 2022.

(Mr. Wiroj Lukman)

The director of Lampang Kanlayanee School
